

Amanda Dudley – Western New York Chapter

Amanda is currently the Northeast Region Newsletter Editor. She has been a member of FEW since 2010.

Amanda has been employed at the Internal Revenue Service since June 2006. She started her career as an Individual Taxpayer Assistance Representative in Rochester, NY. Amanda has held her current position as a Revenue Officer in Rochester, NY since October 2009.

Amanda is married with no children, but a Pembroke Welsh Corgi named Motley that she considers her baby boy. She spends her free time as a docent at the Susan B. Anthony house in Rochester, NY. Amanda loves history and collects antique books, especially in relation to woman's history.